Mrs. Lola Suter

Mr. and Mrs. Bo Suter (hot-diggity—formality for us, too!) also had a party of sorts before the dance Friday night. It was fun to chit-chat with Chris and Jim Hall, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sayre, Mary Conover, Ruth and Frank Hanover, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marquis, and Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hurst.

The Spur-of-the-Moment party that Bette and Chuck Shott gave Saturday night was Big Time fun as that kind of party always is. Seems to me that at least a trillion people strolled in and out during the evening and naming them all would be a big, big task so here are just a few: Mr. and Mrs. Joel Stanley, the Tom McNarys, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Hicks, the Warren Boggs, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Newborn, the Leonard DoYLES, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Powell, and the Carl Larkins.

This money-raising idea for street lights is growing by leaps and bounds and our community spirit is certainly growing with it. Does anyone know of a nicer, more informal way of meeting neighbors and making new friends? Since Friday night (this being Monday morning) already six people have offered to give parties. The ball really is beginning to roll and if YOU want to give it another push just yell out loud and we'll rush to your aid.

A word to the wise... we are trying to get everybody in Seaside Ranchos to at least one of these parties... so be sure to fill out the questionnaire you received last week and return it to your Block Captain. And remember our motto—"Many Hands Make Lights Work."

Helen and Bill Schmitz's Come'n Eat breakfast Saturday morning was a yummy affair—grapefruit juice, eggs, bacon, toast, and coffee were included in the handouts. Among those who were brunching were the Ben Clouches, the Robert Meases, Peg Hall, Mrs. Dorsey Gruver, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Patton, Dorothy Pomeroy, Harvey and Wynne Spelman, the Frank Jenkins, Dorothy Haegele, the Derby Rosenbergs, the Harry Greenwoods, the Jack Monsons, Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Johnson, Mrs. Byron Burton, and Margaret Jeffrey.

Dorothy (Mrs. Jack) Pomeroy and her two children, Leslie and Christine, have returned recently from a month's vacation in the east. Jack accompanied them during the first two weeks of the trip and this globe-trotting family really made the rounds. Visits were made to see Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Pomeroy of Detroit, and Dottie's mother, Mrs. Leslie Wise of Kansas City. The trip was made by air and included visits in Chicago (where Christine, the baby, was very ill) and Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hall of Sharynne Lane celebrated with a television party Saturday night in honor of Dr. M. E. Weber of Hollywood Riviera. The occasion... Dr. Weber's birthday. Cake and coffee were served to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelley of Palos Verdes, Frances Weber, the honoree, and the host and hostess.

Ruth and Frank Hanover attended the Formal Ball Saturday night at the Army and Navy Club in Santa Monica.

Our own Frankie Barth played in the Masters Bridge Tournament Sunday afternoon in Long Beach. Her partner was Jack Byers of Hollywood Riviera. Do-reen Ruffer of Hollywood Riviera and Dick Layman of Redondo Beach completed the foursome.

Seaside Ranchos Home Owners Association meeting takes place tonight at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. Mrs. Stevens of the Aaron Schultz Furniture Store in Long Beach will be the speaker. An up-to-date report al-
